16. Subject to the terms of the Funding Agreement, SDTC will not have any rights to any intellectual property developed by Recipient. The Funding Agreement will provide that, upon certain situations of default by Recipient, the Recipient will convey directly to the Government of Canada a perpetual, royalty-free, sub-licensable license to exercise Recipient's intellectual property rights. Recipient will disclose to SDTC any arrangements and agreements with respect to the ownership of intellectual property developed during the Funding Period.

17. The Recipient may not transfer the Intellectual Property to a non-resident of Canada during the Term of the funding period without first repaying to SDTC an amount equal to the Contribution plus an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Contribution. Further, if a transfer to a nonresident of Canada occurs and SDTC is not provided at least 21 days' prior notice, the Government of Canada will be granted a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, commercialize, modify and sublicense the Intellectual Property and background intellectual property.
