Introduction

Sustainable Development Technology Canada (SDTC) is pleased to submit to the Minister of Innovation, Science and Economic Development, for tabling in Parliament, its annual report on the administration of the Privacy Act for the reporting period commencing April 1, 2020 and ending March 31, 2021. This report is submitted in accordance with section 72 of the Act.

The Privacy Act took effect on July 1, 1983. The PA extends to individuals the right of access to information held by the government, about themselves, subject to specific and limited exceptions. The Act also protects individuals' personal information and gives individuals substantial control over its collection, use and disclosure.

Who we are

As the largest funder of cleantech SMEs in Canada, Sustainable Development Technology Canada plays a crucial role in supporting entrepreneurs to seize the opportunities of the Net Zero economy. Our streamlined approach to working with clients has deepened our understanding of the resiliency firms must have to scaleup. SDTC's world-class due diligence, faster decision times, expertise and knowledge allow companies to access support when they need it most. Recognizing SDTC's pivotal role, the Government of Canada invested $750 million in SDTC as part of its plan: A Healthy Environment and a Healthy Economy, which charts a path for Canada's economic and environmental future. The Government of Canada's commitment enables SDTC to keep the momentum going and support even more Canadian climate tech companies to grow and scale to meet domestic and global demand for solutions in the Net Zero era.

In 2001, the Government of Canada created SDTC to identify and support Canadian companies with the potential to become leaders in developing new climate technologies. Our goal is to support companies from seed through to success and we have invested over $1.38 billion to make this happen. To date, SDTC companies have created an estimated 16,930 jobs and helped reduce approximately 22.4 million megatonnes of greenhouse gas emissions annually in Canada and around the world.

Governance and oversight of the Foundation's activities are provided by an independent, 15-member Board of Directors made up of private and not-for-profit sector leaders from across Canada with a broad range of experience and expertise. This Board oversight includes accountability for the management of the Foundation's financial matters, strategic direction and business affairs. A list of the current Board of Directors and Members can be found at sdtc.ca.

Mission

SDTC's mission is to identify and fund Canadian companies developing and demonstrating new technologies with the potential to transform the environmental and economic prosperity of Canada. With our support and funding, we want to accelerate their ability to become global leaders in their field.

We do this by:

- Funding the development and demonstration of new environmental technologies
- Fostering and encouraging collaboration among organizations in the private sector, academia, the not-for-profit sector and others to develop and demonstrate new technologies
- Promoting the timely diffusion of new technologies across key economic sectors in Canada

Accountability to Parliament

In addition to being accountable to its Board of Directors, SDTC is accountable to Parliament through the Minister of Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada (ISED).

In its accountability to Parliament, SDTC adheres to many federal Acts and has been asked to participate in a number of federal reviews and evaluations undertaken by federal government departments including the Office of the Auditor General of Canada and the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat.
